executive proclamation

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

THE STATEHOUSE PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA

WHEREAS, Bill Dayton was born in the Great State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bill began at the age of 10 to play music with his brother's band in the small towns of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has always represented the State of South Dakota with honor and has always talked, with pride and fond memories, to radio and newspaper reporters of his days in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bill is returning from Pennsylvania to South Dakota with his 18-piece Big Band on July the 7th to celebrate his 40th year in the music business at the Arkota Ballroom in Sioux Falls; and,

WHEREAS, This event is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of this special occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, July 7, 1979, as in South Dakota, and I join with his many friends and relatives in wishing him a very Happy Anniversary and homecoming.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
